Dear East Hills Families:

Next to people, books are my favorite things and here at East Hills, there's never such a thing as too many books!

It will be my pleasure every month to provide each class the precious gift of a book for their classroom library, complete with a letter of introduction and why I thought the theme was appropriate or timely. I hope these books inspire you, touch your hearts, and instill a love of learning that will last throughout a lifetime. When time allows, Mrs. Lewis and I will enjoy presenting the book to the class and reading it to the children.

Also posted on the East Hills web page is the first letter that each class received along with September's book selection, Courage by Bernard Waber. You may find it fun to speak to your child about the book. Please feel free to share their comments with me, as I'd love to hear them.

If you have any questions or need any further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Allison Brown,
Principal
